

Questions for Homegroups

---

Matthew 8:1-17

- Why does Matthew choose a leper, a centurion and Peter's mother-in-law as his first three examples of Jesus' authoritative ministry?
- The sermon indicated that there were several "reversals" in this passage. Can you list them? Why are they important?
- What particular characteristic of Jesus stands out most to you in this passage? Why? (Is this just your favourite? Should you in fact be seeing something else?)
- How does this passage affect your attitude towards yourself?
- How does should this passage affect us as a church?

Questions for Homegroups

---

Matthew 8:1-17

- Why does Matthew choose a leper, a centurion and Peter's mother-in-law as his first three examples of Jesus' authoritative ministry?
- The sermon indicated that there were several "reversals" in this passage. Can you list them? Why are they important?
- What particular characteristic of Jesus stands out most to you in this passage? Why? (Is this just your favourite? Should you in fact be seeing something else?)
- How does this passage affect your attitude towards yourself?
- How does should this passage affect us as a church?

Questions for Homegroups

---

Matthew 8:1-17

- Why does Matthew choose a leper, a centurion and Peter's mother-in-law as his first three examples of Jesus' authoritative ministry?
- The sermon indicated that there were several "reversals" in this passage. Can you list them? Why are they important?
- What particular characteristic of Jesus stands out most to you in this passage? Why? (Is this just your favourite? Should you in fact be seeing something else?)
- How does this passage affect your attitude towards yourself?
- How does should this passage affect us as a church?