

Questions for Homegroups

---

Matthew 8:23-9:8

- Examine the three stories that Matthew has collected together here and think through what Matthew is trying to say about Jesus.
- What objections might a modern person have to these claims? How would you answer them?
- Look at the various ways in which people respond to Jesus in this section. How well do they correspond to the way that people respond to Jesus today?
- What do you think is the most important part of this passage for you?
- What do you need to put into practice the main lesson for you?

Questions for Homegroups

---

Matthew 8:23-9:8

- Examine the three stories that Matthew has collected together here and think through what Matthew is trying to say about Jesus.
- What objections might a modern person have to these claims? How would you answer them?
- Look at the various ways in which people respond to Jesus in this section. How well do they correspond to the way that people respond to Jesus today?
- What do you think is the most important part of this passage for you?
- What do you need to put into practice the main lesson for you?

Questions for Homegroups

---

Matthew 8:23-9:8

- Examine the three stories that Matthew has collected together here and think through what Matthew is trying to say about Jesus.
- What objections might a modern person have to these claims? How would you answer them?
- Look at the various ways in which people respond to Jesus in this section. How well do they correspond to the way that people respond to Jesus today?
- What do you think is the most important part of this passage for you?
- What do you need to put into practice the main lesson for you?