

Questions for Homegroups

1 Samuel 1

- Read the chapter looking at the various aspects of Hannah's suffering. Are there similarities between this and situations that you have known?
- The people around Hannah don't help. Examine this, and consider how we should support people through difficult situations.
- Hannah prays. How does her experience of prayer help us to understand the nature of true prayer?
- How is Hannah's vow unique to her, and in what ways does it reflect the calling of every Christian? What does this calling mean for us practically? What do you think God might be calling you to give up?

Questions for Homegroups

1 Samuel 1

- Read the chapter looking at the various aspects of Hannah's suffering. Are there similarities between this and situations that you have known?
- The people around Hannah don't help. Examine this, and consider how we should support people through difficult situations.
- Hannah prays. How does her experience of prayer help us to understand the nature of true prayer?
- How is Hannah's vow unique to her, and in what ways does it reflect the calling of every Christian? What does this calling mean for us practically? What do you think God might be calling you to give up?

Questions for Homegroups

1 Samuel 1

- Read the chapter looking at the various aspects of Hannah's suffering. Are there similarities between this and situations that you have known?
- The people around Hannah don't help. Examine this, and consider how we should support people through difficult situations.
- Hannah prays. How does her experience of prayer help us to understand the nature of true prayer?
- How is Hannah's vow unique to her, and in what ways does it reflect the calling of every Christian? What does this calling mean for us practically? What do you think God might be calling you to give up?