

Kept By God

Psalm 46-48

Read the three Psalms and summarise the message of each of them

For the Apostle Peter, Christian discipleship follows the pattern of the cross – i.e. suffering followed by glory

Read 1 Peter 1v3-9

- What will be our future experience?
- What is our present experience?
- What is the link between the two?
- What is the source of Joy acc to Peter?

- What are some of the ways the western church sacrifices hope for the sake of comfort?

- Where are you tempted to invest in present comfort and glory, rather than in the future?

Kept By God

Psalm 46-48

Read the three Psalms and summarise the message of each of them

For the Apostle Peter, Christian discipleship follows the pattern of the cross – i.e. suffering followed by glory

Read 1 Peter 1v3-9

- What will be our future experience?
- What is our present experience?
- What is the link between the two?
- What is the source of Joy acc to Peter?

- What are some of the ways the western church sacrifices hope for the sake of comfort?

- Where are you tempted to invest in present comfort and glory, rather than in the future?

Kept By God

Psalm 46-48

Read the three Psalms and summarise the message of each of them

For the Apostle Peter, Christian discipleship follows the pattern of the cross – i.e. suffering followed by glory

Read 1 Peter 1v3-9

- What will be our future experience?
- What is our present experience?
- What is the link between the two?
- What is the source of Joy acc to Peter?

- What are some of the ways the western church sacrifices hope for the sake of comfort?

- Where are you tempted to invest in present comfort and glory, rather than in the future?