

Ruth 4 questions:

Here are some potential questions for Ruth Chapter 4 – as always be flexible and adapt them to your group. The transcript from his talk is also available on the website.

What are some of the key words and themes in Ruth?
What have been some of the main highs and lows.
How did we leave it at the end of chapter 3?

What role does Boaz play? How does a guardian redeemer work?

Why does the closer relative not want to redeem them / the land?
How can we be like that?

How does Boaz answer his own prayer?
How can we?

What role does Ruth the Moabitess play in the entire book?

In what ways are we like Ruth?

In what ways ought we to be like Ruth?

How has Naomi been transformed throughout the book?

Matt explained how chapter 4 is the happy ending to the book, but how does that pan out for us? What would you say to a friend who's experiencing pain at the moment?

What encouragements are there in Ruth that might have kept Naomi going along the way?

What encouragements are there in your life at the moment?