

Questions for Homegroups

Job 38-39

- Review briefly for yourselves what we have learned so far about:
 - Reasons for Job's suffering
 - Job's response to his suffering
 - The friends response to Job
- What are the various things God is saying about himself throughout the whole of these two chapters? (Spend the bulk of your time reflecting on this.)
- What is God saying about his creation in these speeches?
- What is God saying about Job in these speeches?
- How does this help Job to deal with his suffering? Would it help you?
- Do you have experience of being helped in the same way that Job is helped here?
- From these chapters what changes might you need to put in place in your life to help you to be more resilient to life's trials?

Questions for Homegroups

Job 38-39

- Review briefly for yourselves what we have learned so far about:
 - Reasons for Job's suffering
 - Job's response to his suffering
 - The friends response to Job
- What are the various things God is saying about himself throughout the whole of these two chapters? (Spend the bulk of your time reflecting on this.)
- What is God saying about his creation in these speeches?
- What is God saying about Job in these speeches?
- How does this help Job to deal with his suffering? Would it help you?
- Do you have experience of being helped in the same way that Job is helped here?
- From these chapters what changes might you need to put in place in your life to help you to be more resilient to life's trials?

Questions for Homegroups

Job 38-39

- Review briefly for yourselves what we have learned so far about:
 - Reasons for Job's suffering
 - Job's response to his suffering
 - The friends response to Job
- What are the various things God is saying about himself throughout the whole of these two chapters? (Spend the bulk of your time reflecting on this.)
- What is God saying about his creation in these speeches?
- What is God saying about Job in these speeches?
- How does this help Job to deal with his suffering? Would it help you?
- Do you have experience of being helped in the same way that Job is helped here?
- From these chapters what changes might you need to put in place in your life to help you to be more resilient to life's trials?