

Questions for Homegroups

Job meets Jesus

- Review Job's speeches especially in chapters 9, 13, 14, 19, 23 and try to summarise what Job longed for.
- How does Jesus satisfy Job's longings?
- Review Job's speeches again especially Job 14:16-17, 16:19-20, 19:25-26 and summarise the glimpses of hope that Job enjoyed. What elements of New Testament truth do you think Job especially needed?
- Why do you think that the final paragraphs of Job describe a simple removal of his troubles? How does this affect how we are encouraged to view suffering in Job?
- How do you think our perspective as New Testament believers should affect our attitude to suffering? Is Job a good model for us or not?
- Have the truths the Job longed for and glimpsed helped you in your experience?
- How has the book of Job helped you to engage with suffering? What further help do you feel you need?

Questions for Homegroups

Job meets Jesus

- Review Job's speeches especially in chapters 9, 13, 14, 19, 23 and try to summarise what Job longed for.
- How does Jesus satisfy Job's longings?
- Review Job's speeches again especially Job 14:16-17, 16:19-20, 19:25-26 and summarise the glimpses of hope that Job enjoyed. What elements of New Testament truth do you think Job especially needed?
- Why do you think that the final paragraphs of Job describe a simple removal of his troubles? How does this affect how we are encouraged to view suffering in Job?
- How do you think our perspective as New Testament believers should affect our attitude to suffering? Is Job a good model for us or not?
- Have the truths the Job longed for and glimpsed helped you in your experience?
- How has the book of Job helped you to engage with suffering? What further help do you feel you need?

Questions for Homegroups

Job meets Jesus

- Review Job's speeches especially in chapters 9, 13, 14, 19, 23 and try to summarise what Job longed for.
- How does Jesus satisfy Job's longings?
- Review Job's speeches again especially Job 14:16-17, 16:19-20, 19:25-26 and summarise the glimpses of hope that Job enjoyed. What elements of New Testament truth do you think Job especially needed?
- Why do you think that the final paragraphs of Job describe a simple removal of his troubles? How does this affect how we are encouraged to view suffering in Job?
- How do you think our perspective as New Testament believers should affect our attitude to suffering? Is Job a good model for us or not?
- Have the truths the Job longed for and glimpsed helped you in your experience?
- How has the book of Job helped you to engage with suffering? What further help do you feel you need?