

HG Questions

Mark 6:1-30

1. John, Jesus, and the apostles carried a message of repentance. Why does the message of repentance sometimes create such a hostile response as we see in Herodias?
2. Repentance can be understood as a negative thing. How is repentance actually a really good thing for us?
3. Carrying a message of repentance and faith to our friends and colleagues could create a hostile reaction. How does our view of Jesus and his message change our attitude to his mission and the potential hostility we could face? See Acts 5:41 and context.
4. What else gives you the courage and motivation to put yourself in such a position?
5. What are the things that hold us back from speaking about repentance with the unbelievers in our lives?
6. What would be good things to pray for now?
